My dear Mr. Chapman

I spoke to my friend Brune last evening about your application to membership of the Historical Society

He told me there is a regular form to sign. If you will get the form from Mr. Stone at the Room of the Society I will sign the application. I cannot get the paper conveniently just now as my time is taken up as a juror

Truly Yours

Gentlemen

Please find herewith my check for Five Hundred & Seventy Five Dollars on account.

In looking over my memo. I find your bid for #1225 & #1317. one dollar each more than I named. #1218 I do not find charged. #1291 I do not find I authorized any bid for.

I write this hastily as I expect to go out of town this evening for some days; when I return I will settle balance.

Yours truly

John T. Morris

On my way here I had your catalogue before me and I want to ask your judgment about the following numbers & whether in your opinion I would find them desirable. I do not remember any of them

I make out the list on a separate paper so that you need not have the trouble of writing if you feel inclined I will be glad to have your idea of values

Should not #458 be Urban VIII!

I do not want it, but it looks like a misprint if I knew the corre

Where will it find you

I -, better if it finds you not at all.

When in Paris I visited the collection of coins at the Louvre and having become somewhat interested in some of the characters in Numismatory I procured some coins which if they can be had at reasonable prices I would like to consider

Therefor -, if you choose come across good specimens of any of the following

Coins please find out - what the price can be had for and I will [illegible]

when we return home.

If you can [illegible] the time to do this, no matter. I will be perfectly satisfied either way, better perhaps if you adopt the second idea
